

Age of Children in Foster Care

as of December of each year

In recent years, children over age 13 have become the majority.